ImmuPharma PLC
("ImmuPharma" or the "Company")

Appointments of Chief Scientific Officer and Head of R&D

ImmuPharma PLC (LSE: IMM), a specialty biopharmaceutical company that discovers and develops peptide-based therapeutics, announces key appointments, in conjunction with the filing of a groundbreaking new patent application for its lead asset P140, separately announced today.

Recognising the significance of this major step forward, Dr Sébastien Goudreau has been promoted into the position of Chief Scientific Officer and Dr Laura Mauran-Ambrosino has been promoted to Head of Research and Development, of the Company.

Commenting on this announcement, Tim McCarthy, CEO of ImmuPharma, said:

"The new patent on P140 is a major step forward for the Company and is the result of the impressive and dedicated research conducted by both Sébastien and Laura over the last two years.

As we continue to move forward on the next step of our corporate journey, which is the partnering and commercialisation of our product portfolio, P140 in particular, it is important that our R&D team is at the forefront of our interactions and negotiations with current and future commercial partners.

I and the Board congratulate both Sébastien and Laura on their new appointments and thank them for their innovation and hard work."
